PROUD ADMONISHEE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
REGION 16

UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL
WORKERS LOCALS 051, 7 AND 1036, et al.,

Respondent,

and

MEIJER, INC.,

Charging Party.

No. 16-CB-3850

REQUEST THAT BOARD SEEK A PARDON

Over the years, the Admonishee has requested the Board rescind the 1998 “admonition.” The Board has declined to do so. That incident was 21 years ago.

The Admonishee still believes that the Right To Shirk Committee is exactly that, a committee financed by employers to bust unions. Nonetheless, he has not referred to the Right to Shirk Committee by that name in pleadings in Board cases. For the record, we want to be clear that we have not in any pleadings referred to the National Right to Work Legal Defense Foundation as the “National Right to Shirk Legal Defense Foundation.”

Because the Board has declined up to this point to remove the admonition, he requests another process.

He requests that the three Board members, all of whom are appointees of President Trump, ask the President for a pardon. The President has pardoned people who stole billions, committed perjury or engaged in sale of their public offices. The conduct of the Admonishee in this case doesn't rise quite to that level.

For these reasons, the Admonishee requests the Board jointly to ask President Trump for a pardon. The President could announce it from the Rose Garden, maintaining social distance and without a mask. It would be a political triumph for him, a non-controversial pardon. Kind of like the holiday turkey.

The Board cannot imagine how much it would mean. We hope the Board will not wait until a Democrat is elected President and a new Board is appointed.
